Partner Liaison: Cindy Sadler, Acting Executive Director

The Alliance for Excellent Education (All4Ed) is an advocacy organization that seeks to ensure that all at-risk middle school and high school students graduate prepared for college. All4Ed publishes and disseminates policy reports (e.g. Every Child a Graduate, Making Title I Work for All Children), provides information and resources to its growing network of allies, and educates the broader public about related research studies and policy issues through its web site and other media.
